

WATTS HALL RE-OPENING CELEBRATION— FREE Community Events

Wed, April 15, 12:30
Brown Bag Lunch with Kevin Johnson and the Work of Kosti Ruohomaa

Join Photo Archivist Kevin Johnson for his presentation on the life and work of renowned Maine photographer Kosti Ruohomaa, the storyteller with a camera, who grew up in Rockland.

Pack yourself a sandwich and enjoy your time with Kosti. Sweets and drinks will be served.

Co-sponsored by the Thomaston Public Library

Fri, April 17, 5pm
Community THANK YOU Open House

Let's celebrate with our local ukulele band! Tour upgraded Watts Hall, sip wine, savor hors d'oeuvres and enjoy the company of friends and neighbors. It's our way of saying "Thank You!"

UkesRock will perform starting at 5:30pm.

Sun, April 19, 2pm
Old Fashioned Family Bingo

Not high tech and no big money prizes, just a fun game with family and friends. Gather up your neighbors and head to the Hall.

Wed, April 22, 12pm
Brown Bag Lunch with Sean Fleming's Real Ragtime

There are very few things more inspiring or fun than listening to Sean play the piano. This Ragtime concert will set your toes a tapping and your spirit dancing.

Bring a lunch. Sweets, drinks and a good time will be served.

Co-sponsored by the Thomaston Public Library

Mon, April 27, 12pm
Brown Bag Lunch with David Rogers

A master guitar player, David Rogers, will present a program of classical, Spanish and North African repertoire as well as modern-day pop music – with humorous stories connecting all.

Bring a lunch. Sweets, drinks and a good time will be served.

Co-sponsored by the Thomaston Public Library
